ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND SOME THOUGHTS ___

I'm thankful to all those who helped me, supported me and motivated me to achieve my goals.

Thanks to my mom, Monica Chopra and my dad Neeraj Chopra for being such supportive and allowing me to chase my only dream of becoming a writer. My grandparents Chander Chopra and Vinay Chopra encouraged me for the same. My cute little sister Khyati Chopra who was the most excited for this novel and all my relatives.

My friends who were there for me even at the mid-night—Manika Bindra, Vishesh Oberoi, Sarthak Aggarwal, Lakshay Kapoor, Devansh Kapoor and many more for their support.

I would like to share my brief thoughts about how the idea of writing a novel struck to my mind—

It started when me and my friends were chit chatting in the classroom talking about careers. I always had a dream of becoming a writer but my confusion was how to begin with something out of the box.

My first big achievement was the play that I wrote for the weekly class assembly which gave me a title of writer in my class.

When I had a little bit of experience of writing, my first aim was to try for a screenplay. That was read by many and helped me draw attention towards myself.

This was absolutely the right time when I could test my hand on something big.

It was 12:30 am and I was about to start something on my laptop. 'A romantic story' this is what my mind said but with a different flavour and after about a year I was ready with it – 'TUM HI HO'

24th Feb, 2016 – the day when I completed it. My novel was ready.

I discussed it with my dad and my dream came to life.

All I want to say is that don't just read this novel. Also FEEL IT. Imagine, picturise and let it touch your heart.

My last words

Tum Hi Ho
